

BIOGRAPHY

Dotti Reeder

Dotti Reeder is a Managing Director and Banker in J.P. Morgan's Private Bank in Dallas, Texas. Her expertise is in working with wealthy families, foundations and endowments to achieve long term financial success through implementation of strategic wealth management strategies. With an extensive background in investment management, fiduciary administration and credit analysis, Dotti is uniquely qualified to understand client needs and offer targeted solutions across the financial spectrum.

Dotti has over 27 years of experience in the financial services industry, 20 years with JPMorgan Chase and predecessor organizations. Before joining J.P. Morgan, Dotti worked for Kidder Peabody & Co. as a municipal bond trader and underwriter. Previous experience also includes two years in the audit practice of KPMG.

Dotti is active in the Dallas community serving on the Boards of the ChildCareGroup as incoming Chairman, the YWCA, Dallas Children's Advocacy Center Foundation and Dallas Business Council for the Arts. She is a member of Executive Women of Dallas and Texas Wall Street Women and also serves on the Finance Committee for the City of University Park.

Dotti was graduated from the University of Texas at Austin with a B.B.A. in Accounting. She holds the following Securities Licenses:

Series 7 General Securities Registered Representative
Series 65 Uniform Investment Advisor Representative
Series 63 Uniform Securities State Law License