

Liz joined Sendero Wealth Management in 2012 and is a member of the Sendero Investment Committee. Prior to joining Sendero, she was responsible for many different aspects of family wealth and institutional consulting for endowments and foundations. In 1995, she began her career working with wealthy families in San Antonio at the firm Austin, Calvert & Flavin. Most recently, Liz was the Director of Consulting at The Trust Company in San Antonio where she founded the consulting division, was responsible for asset allocation, manager selection, due diligence, and client relationships. Prior to that, Liz worked in Dallas for the nation's second largest value manager.

Liz has a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from Boston University. She is an active volunteer in the community and sits on several non-profit boards. She received the San Antonio Business Journal's "40 Under 40 Rising Star Award" in 2007 and was awarded the Five Star Advisor Award in 2009 and 2010.

Liz enjoys traveling, horseback riding, and spending time with her husband, Steve, and their three children

