

Leah R. Bennett, CFA, CIC
Managing Director
Chief Investment Officer

Leah R. Bennett is a portfolio manager and investment analyst for King Investment Advisors, Inc. She has been with KING seventeen years and has twenty years of experience in the investment business. Leah, a CFA charterholder and a Chartered Investment Counselor, is a graduate of Texas A&M University with a B.S. in Economics. Before joining KING, Leah was a research analyst for Capital Research & Management in Los Angeles. Currently, Leah is Managing Director and Chief Investment Officer for KING, as well as a member of the firm's Investment Advisory Group. She is the incoming CFA Institute Presidents' Council Representative for the South Central United States, Latin and South America Region, and is a former President and Director of the CFA Society of Houston. Leah is a member of the CFA Institute and co-founder of the CFA Institute-Texas Investment Research Challenge, having formerly served as Chairman of the organization's education committee. Leah serves on the M. A. Wright Fund Oversight Board, Jesse H. Jones Graduate School of Management, Rice University. She is also a Texas Angel for the Texas Wall Street Women.